

LEED GREEN ASSOCIATE EXAM PREP WORKSHOP

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

Passing the Green Associate exam will allow you to market your knowledge of the preeminent standards in the green building industry, and it is the first step in the new LEED tiered credentials. This 1-day workshop is designed to provide an overview of sustainable building concepts that are fundamental to all LEED Rating Systems and provide information necessary to prepare for taking the LEED Green Associate exam.

The course includes a student workbook as well as review and practice questions that use the same format as those you will find on the actual exam.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Describe green building goals
- Identify LEED rating systems and requirements
- Define green building terms
- Compare and contrast requirements for various LEED categories
- Understand requirements of a LEED Green Associate (credentialing maintenance, disciplinary policy, exam guidelines)

ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR

Heather Gay, LEED AP BD+C, is an adjunct instructor at Dunwoody College of Technology, and has been involved with the local USGBC Chapter and nationally with USGBC, for 5 years. Heather has served on USGBC's National Educational Steering Committee, and served on the local Chapter's Board for 2 years. She is one of the founding members of the local Emerging Green Builders committee, and has also founded a non profit focusing on green building and volunteerism called Historic Green.
